

COVID-19 Response

“Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in Heaven”

Matthew 5:16

This has been Ao1’s banner scripture since our inception in 2008 and we will continue to shine our light by faith through these unprecedented times, while exercising Godly wisdom, caution, and community care. Ao1 is following CDC, WHO, and local, state, and federal government guidelines and mandates regarding COVID-19. We’ve joined our community partners by suspending our operations for the next two weeks in an effort to curb the spread of coronavirus. Ao1 will remain closed until it is deemed safe for our families and our greater community to resume operations. We have also delayed the sale of tickets to our upcoming productions until further notice. Anything Goes performances scheduled for 3/27-29 have been cancelled and all tickets purchased for these performances will be fully refunded. It is our intent to reschedule our Anything Goes performances to a date in the near future and to perform our other spring productions; Tuck Everlasting, Shrek JR, and Journey of the Noble Gnarble as originally scheduled. Ticket sales will reopen just as soon as dates can be confirmed. As all Americans, we continue to watch Cronavirus developments and pray for the health and safety of our friends and neighbors. As we lean into the recommendations of our government officials, we trust our God to bring us through these trying times and restore our country and the world to wholeness quickly. While we wait, our leadership, casts, and families continue to make preparations to present outstanding, family friendly theater productions for you in the weeks ahead. God bless you all and keep you well. We look forward to seeing you at the theater soon!

Trusting in Him,
Denise Fenner
